7.4. The Assistant judge assesses whether both competitors have adequate clothes and may request that one or both competitors change.

Article 8 Competition Etiquette

8.1 Competitors shall perform a palm and fist salute when they are introduced to the audience before the start of each match.

8.2 At the start of the match the competitors shall perform a palm and fist salute from the platform towards their respective coaches who in turn shall return the same palm and fist salute. The competitors will then perform a palm and fist salute towards one another.

8.3 When announcing the result of a bout, the competitors shall first switch their positions. Following the announcement of the result, the competitors shall perform a palm and fist salute to each other first, then to the platform judge who will return the salute, following which the competitors will salute one another's coaches, who will also return the salute.

8.4 When a sideline judge is replaced by another judge, both judges shall perform a palm and fist salute to one another.

Article 9 Default

9.1 During the course of a competition, should a competitor be unable to compete due to illness or injury (which must be confirmed as legitimate by the medical committee's appointed doctor) or due to failure to weigh-in correctly, this shall be considered as default and the competitor will not be permitted to participate in the following matches. However, the ranking achieved up to that point will still be considered as valid.

9.2 Should a competitor be absent for the weighing in; fail to appear for the roll-call 3 times prior to a bout or leaves the designated area following the roll-call; fail to appear at the competition area on time; this will be regarded as a groundless default.

9.4 During a competition, should a competitor have a groundless default, all his results attained in the competition up to that point shall be cancelled.

Article 10 Other Competition Related Provisions

10.1 Onsite judges must be serious, fair, and accurate, fully focusing on their judging responsibilities. They are not allowed to leave their designated seats without permission from the head judge.

10.2 All competitors must abide by the competition rules and protocols, and respect and obey the judges and officials' decisions. It is forbidden to cause disruptions, curse and shout or act in any way to display discontent. During a bout, coaches and competitors are not permitted to leave the field of play prior to the announcement of the results (except in cases of medical or first-aid emergency). Otherwise, the head judge has the authority to issue a penalty of admonition or a warning.

10.3 During a bout, the coach may only be accompanied by one assistant coach or team doctor. They must wear official attire and must remain seated at the designated spot (shorts and sandals are not allowed).

10.4 If athletes, coaches, or related team personnel refuse to obey the decisions of the judging panel or jury of appeals, attempting to disrupt the order of the competition, engage in behaviors such as verbal or physical abuse towards the opponents or judges, and reject advice or dissuasion, thereby obstructing the normal progress of the competition. The head judge may refer the matter to the supervisory committee, depending on the severity of the case, individuals involved may have their current round results canceled, all results canceled, and issuing public announcement with their eligibility to participate in the competition revoked.

10.5 Doping in any form is strictly forbidden. Competitors are not permitted to inhale oxygen in the rest period between rounds.

The Jury of Appeals is responsible mainly for supervising competition on such matters as checking the competition area and facilities, equipment, scheduling, drawing of lots, competitors' weighing-in, grouping of officials and arrangement and conduction of their work etc. During competition the Jury of Appeal shall supervise the officiating work. In case of any obvious unjust behavior or incorrect judgment, they shall have the right to give warnings to the officials concerned and, in serious cases, may even propose to the IWUF Technical Committee to remove them from their current officiating work to ensure the smooth running of competitions.

12.2 The Jury of Appeal shall deal with appeals submitted by participating teams who have disagreement with the platform referee's onsite judgment. Such appeals shall be confined to decisions related directly to the appealing team.

12.3 The Jury of Appeal shall handle the appeals immediately after receiving them and duly notify the parties concerned of the ruling. The decision of the Jury of Appeals shall be final.

12.4 The Jury of Appeal will investigate the case immediately and review the video recording if necessary. It may hold discussion meetings and invite other parties to attend them as observers without the right to vote. The meetings must be attended by more than half of the members of the Jury of Appeal. The number of members of the Jury of Appeal participating in the investigation must be more than half of its total members in order for any voting decisions to be valid. In case of a tied vote, the chairman shall have the right to make the final decision.

12.5 Members of the Jury of Appeal shall not participate in investigations in which their country or region is involved.

12.6 Through the examination process, should the platform referee's original decision found to be correct, it will be upheld. Should the platform referee's original decision found to be incorrect, the Jury of Appeals has the right to change the platform judge's decision and competitor's result concerned and shall request that the Judges' Committee deals with the judge in question in line with WKFE provisions.

Article 13 Appeal Method & Requirements

13.1 Each participating team has the opportunity to appeal at most two (2) times for the whole competition duration. Should the appeal be found to be invalid, the opportunity for appeal will be deducted accordingly.

13.2 A participating team who has objection to the onsite judgement of the platform referee must raise an appeal onsite immediately; the Jury of Appeal will immediately review the appeal and come to an arbitration conclusion. Should the appeal be valid, then the result will be amended. Should the appeal to be found invalid, then the result will remain unchanged.

13.3 After the conclusion has been made by the Jury of Appeal, the appellant should complete the written appeal procedure, and must pay an appeal fee of 200 EUROS if the appeal is denied.

13.4 All teams shall abide by the rules and accept the final decisions made by the Jury of Appeal. Strict actions will be taken according to the severity of the case and relevant provisions of the competition to teams that cause any disruptions against the decision, fail to follow the appeal procedures, and refuse to pay the appeal fee.
